MISCELLANEOUS.

TWENTY YEARS AGO

Physicians sent their throat and lung patients toward the tropics. Now they send them northward—to the mountains—up among the pines. Sufferers from throat and lung troubles experience a wonderful sense of relief in the fragrant atmosphere of a pine country.

Santa Abie

is prepared from Abietine Balsam, obtained from a rare species of pine found only in California and Norway, and from Yerba Santa, better known as Mountain Balm. Soothing, healing and restorative, Santa Abie is a matchless remedy for coughs, colds, croup, asthma, bronchitis and all other diseases of like character. Easy to take, quick in its effects. Every bottle guaranteed. 2

A Sacred Fruit.

One of the most curious species of known fruit is the "holy or sacred citron" of the Jews. Its virtues are lauded to the skies, and it is celebrated in legend, romance, poetry and song, and yet it appears that it is never eaten; is known in most all oriental countries, but appears to be most highly esteemed by the Moorish Jews of Tunis and Morocco. On the streets of the last named city it is sold at about 8 cents per fruit. These fruits are generally purchased by bands of roving pilgrims, the members of religious processions and Jewish priests.

When one of these sacred citrons falls into the hands of a priest, he takes it to the synagogue, where it is kept to be used in some emblematic rite during the time of the great feast of the tabernacles. Not only in oriental countries are these holy fruits known and esteemed, but in Germany, Russia, France, Spain and in England. They are probably used in American Jewish synagogues to some extent, but such use would be necessarily limited. In England, so I am informed, good specimens of holy citrons bring as much as 50 shillings each, there being whole companies which make their importation a "side line."

The use of this unique fruit is supposed to be derived from the injunction contained in the twenty-third chapter of the book of Leviticus.—Exchange.

New Method of Starting Street Cars.

The latest method of starting street cars in Denver is said to result in a saving of at least 80 per cent over that of the ordinary system. The difficulty of maintaining schedule time with a large number of cars is well recognized, and on many lines if the car be delayed by an accident for a quarter of an hour or 20 minutes the whole line will become demoralized that schedule time will not be overtaken during the whole day. In the city of Denver there are 74 miles of electrical and 13 miles of cable tracks requiring 103 trains in daily operation.

To obviate the inconvenience which a breakdown of any kind inevitably causes, a system of telephone circuits has been arranged with various call points, all communicating with the head office. Every conductor on arriving at the terminus of the route immediately reports the number of his car to headquarters and receives in reply his proper leaving time and any instructions that may be necessary. The dispatch clerk is in this way advised of the whereabouts of each car and is very often enabled to fill up a space of from 30 to 60 minutes caused by a "parade." The saving of starters at the various termini is taken as a setoff against the expense of the telephones.—Chicago News-Record.

Tobacco Smoke Is a Preservative.

"You have probably never thought of tobacco smoke as a preservative influence, I'll venture," remarked Chatfield Arthur to several companions in the Lawrence spirits, and especially alcohol, will keep whole most anything you are of a mind to commit to its permeating care. I have found tobacco smoke to be equally good, with no worse results as regards odor than alchol, unless you dislike tobacco. I know that I have put bugs, worms and various kinds of reptiles in large bottles and have kept them for years by simply blowing the bottle full of strong tobacco smoke and sealing it properly.

"The perfect forms would remain for years, in fact just as long as the bottle remained perfectly sealed. Upon opening it the result has invariably been—that is, in cases of long standing—a complete collapse. Still the effect is no worse than that of alcohol, for one never thinks of removing a preservative life form from the alcohol. When one puts a form in alcohol, it is understood to be merely for looks and not for examination or handling."—St. Louis Globe-Democrat.

A Point For Travelers.

The advice is given by a well known society woman who travels a great deal to wear one's best underclothing while on the cars. "Never mind if it does get soiled," she says. "I have known of the most flagrant cases of neglect during railroad accidents of people whose underwear looked as though they might be poor. This is a shameful fact, but the people who pick up the wounded after a wreck are intensely human. Many of them do not propose to open their homes to sufferers unless they are to be paid for it. They judge of the ability of people to pay largely by their underwear, as the outside garb of most well to do people is more or less the same in these days."

The idea of arraying one's self with a view to accidents when starting out on a journey is perhaps likely to suggest useless forebodings, and this advice is likely to engender a pessimism regarding the character of one's fellow men, but it may be worth heeding.—Her Point of View in New York Times.

Testing Pure Water.

It is one of the easiest things in the world to tell pure water from the impure. If you want to test the color of the water, just fill a colorless glass bottle with the water and look through it at some black object, and the distinctiveness with which you can see the object will give you an idea as to the amount of clay or sand there is in the water. Then pour out one-half the water, cork the bottle tightly and set it in a warm place for about 24 hours. Remove the cork and smell the air in the bottle. If there is an offensive odor, even the slightest, the water is unfit for domestic uses. Well water, no matter how bright and sparkling, is, nine times out of ten, putrescent. Then, as a matter of course, decomposition is sure to set in in a day or two if you put the bottle in a warm place.—New York Telegram.

A Wonderful Echo.

In the Roman Campagna at the sepulcher of Metalla, wife of Sulla, there is an echo that repeats five times, each being in a different key. It will also repeat a hexameter line or another sentence that can be spoken in 2½ seconds.—New York Evening Sun.

Fast Torpedo Boats.

The famous torpedo boatbuilder at Elbing, Schichau, has just attained an unprecedented speed even for this class of vessel, torpedo boats built by him for the Russian and Italian governments having reached 27¼ knots on an hour's run at sea. The new British boats are to be 200 tons displacement, while the Russian boats are 130 tons, so that the former may do better by reason of greater power and greater size. The length of Schichau's boat is 152 feet 6 inches, the beam 17 feet 5 inches. She may carry 40 tons of coal in her bunkers. On trial, however, she had only 20 tons on board. The small guns carried weighed 2½ tons; the torpedo armament, 6 tons; the crew, provisions, stores and firearms, 4½ tons; drinking water, 2½ tons; engine and boatswain's stores and reserve parts, 4½ tons; so that all the movable parts come to 20 tons, making, with coal, 40 tons.

The vessel and the machinery are therefore very light. The shell plates are barely a quarter of an inch thick. There are two locomotive boilers, protected by the coal bunkers, supplying steam at 195 pounds pressure to high speed engines. The guaranteed speed was to be 26½ knots in the open sea, while on trial the vessel actually made 27½, or, to be precise, 27.4 knots, as a mean of one hour's steaming at sea. Schichau promises even higher results with torpedo boats he is now completing.—Steamship.

Cheaper to Build a New Road.

The Pennsylvania railroad proposes to shorten the distance between this city and New York by constructing a cutoff 25 miles in length from New Brunswick to a point on the outskirts of Jersey City. The line was laid out three or four years ago, and charters were procured covering the route, and last week a license was taken out for the construction of a bridge over the Passaic river. The route is almost a direct line and will avoid the cities of Rahway, Elizabeth and Newark. It will be used exclusively by express trains, an improved local service being established for the convenience of travelers to and from the cities mentioned.

The advantage of the new line consists not so much in the shortening of the distance, but in the fact that through travel will not be interfered with by local trains or municipal restrictions as to the rate of speed in city limits. An enormous number of local passenger trains are run between Jersey City and Rahway, and a great many run through to New Brunswick. Although the road is 4-tracked all the distance the facilities are not adequate, and as it would cost a large sum to put in two more tracks it has been decided to build an entirely new road for 25 miles. When this cutoff is completed, it will be possible to reduce the running time half an hour.—Philadelphia Inquirer

The Careless American People.

The delays in delivering the electoral returns of the states to the vice president, and the shabby and imperfect condition in which some of them make their appearance, only illustrate how careless the American people are about the conduct of their elections. The nation works itself into a perspiration during a campaign, and the two parties are ready apparently to shed each other's blood. But just as soon as the voting is done with all excitement evaporates, and it is hardly possible to center public attention even on the most glaring frauds.

If some of the efforts spent in campaigns were used in securing an honest return of the vote, elections would reflect more accurately the will of the people. There does not appear to be enough care to see even that the forms for electing a president are rightly observed. Verily the American people trust a good deal to their common sense.—Philadelphia Press.

An Electric Road For Brussels.

A scheme is well advanced for providing Brussels with an underground electric railway similar to the South London line. The railway will have no fixed terminus, but will be arranged similar to the Inner Circle line, having 11 stations at the most important points of the city. No locomotives will be employed, but each train will consist of only one first and second class composite bogie carriage, to carry 40 passengers with a compartment in front in which the electric traction gear will be arranged. It is proposed to run 11 such cars in each direction and to work the traffic by the automatic electric block system, as adopted on the Liverpool Electric railway. The lifts at each station will be operated by electric power.—London Engineering.

A Question From the Coffin.

Peter Johnson, an aged colored man, died a few days ago at Elkton. Friends watched over the corpse till Wednesday. One of the women who were watching the corpse procured a towel and some cold water and began to bathe the brow of the supposed dead man. She was startled to see signs of life, and all the colored people were thrown into a state of terror by the negro raising his head from his coffin pillow and inquiring what was the matter. The aged darky was taken from the coffin and is rapidly regaining health.—Cor. Philadelphia Record

A Melodious Metal.

An aluminium viola was played at a concert in Cincinnati Thursday evening, and musical people present pronounced it a success. It was made by Dr. Alfred Springer of Cincinnati, who says that the metal used cost just 32 cents.—Springfield Union

John Burns, the English labor leader, declares that General Booth of the Salvation Army is a "maker of quack remedies for poverty, a neurotic Christian and fanatical faddist, who combines universal brotherhood with incompetence and high salary."

A feature of this season has been the excellence of the fruit brought in ice cars across the United States from California and shipped to English markets.

"German Syrup"

G. Gloger, Druggist, Watertown, Wis. This is the opinion of a man who keeps a drug store, sells all medicines, comes in direct contact with the patients and their families, and knows better than anyone else how remedies sell, and what true merit they have. He hears of all the failures and successes, and can therefore judge: "I know of no medicine for Coughs, Sore Throat, or Hoarseness that had done such effective work in my family as Boschee's German Syrup. Last winter a lady called at my store, who was suffering from a very severe cold. She could hardly talk, and I told her about German Syrup and that a few doses would give relief; but she had no confidence in patent medicines. I told her to take a bottle, and if the results were not satisfactory I would make no charge for it. A few days after she called and paid for it, saying that she would never be without it in future as a few doses had given her relief." ©

The Dresses In "Becket."

Some of the dresses worn in "Becket" are very handsome. Mr. Terriss, as the King, looks throughout gorgeous and has a variety of costumes. In the first act his robe (or shirt, to give it its proper name) is of rose colored silk appliqued in gold or white cloth and decorated with jewels. The edge of the garment has a deep border embroidered in gold and adorned with rubies and opals. The wide hanging sleeves open over tight under sleeves of bright blue cloth, which also appear under the edge of the robe. Over this is worn a delicious cloak of heliotrope cloth bordered with gold lace and lined with a delicate shade of eau de nil silk.

In one of the hunting scenes Mr. Terriss wears a short dress of silver gray silk embroidered with silver and a gray cloth mantle cut up in points round the bottom to show the pink lining. Another delicious cloak worn by the King is of royal blue broche draped round the top and fastening on each shoulder with jeweled clasps. It is lined with a distracting and altogether indescribable color something between salmon and crushed strawberry. Miss Terry wears in the bower scene a straight full dress of hyacinth colored silk gauze trimmed with pink passementerie over a petticoat of pink silk. In the second act she wears a plain princess dress of yellow brocade covered with gold applique and slightly open at the neck.—St. James Gazette.

Ex-President Harrison's Salary.

Ex-President Harrison received his last month's pay in the shape of a draft for $4,166.67, issued on a warrant to the treasurer, signed, as usual, by the secretary of the treasury and sent over to the White House by messenger. March 3 he received another draft for $416.65, issued by the treasury department in the same way, representing his pay for service as president of the United States for the first three days of March and closing his account with the government.

Notwithstanding the fact that he was president up to noon the 4th of March, General Harrison received no pay whatever for his services on that day for the reason that the federal accounting officers do not recognize divisions of a day in the settlement of accounts of salaries. Each incumbent of the office of president is paid the salary of that office beginning with the day of his inauguration, so that he gains in the beginning of his term what he loses in the end.

This arrangement was followed at the previous change of administration, and at its predecessor, and is so fair and reasonable that it is not likely to be changed. According to the treasury computation, the presidential salary of $50,000 a year is at the rate of $136.888 a day.

Powder For a Dead President.

"The amount of powder burned in giving honor to the memory of the late ex-president in salutes on the day of his funeral forms an interesting matter of conjecture," said a citizen the other day "The firing of 13 guns at sunrise, 44 at sunset and 1 at half hour intervals between sunrise and sunset, gives 81 shots from each military post and flagship or naval station within reach of orders from he two departments of war and navy.

"Now, go to work and guess the charge (in pounds) employed, taking caliber of gun used on warship or at military post and see how it climbs up into the thousands. The smallest gun on some of the flagships burns 50 pounds of powder, and the guns used at land stations in firing salutes range down the scale to as low as two pounds. Taking it altogether and considering the matter at a glance, it is safe to say that more powder was consumed in the solemn honoring of the dead ex-president than was burned by cannon and muskets at the great battle of Gettysburg."—Washington Post

Belgium's First Breach of Promise.

For the first time in the history of Belgium the principle of a monetary compensation for breach of promise of marriage has just been established. The judges of the court of appeal were grudging in their admission of the principle, but there is no doubt as to the meaning of their judgment. The test case was that of a young woman who, through her father, brought a breach of promise action against a young Dutchman residing in Brussels. The father obtained a verdict for 5,000 francs damages, plus 8,000 francs for what was called "moral prejudice." In their judgment the judges said that either of the two parties to an engagement might back out of it, although not at the last moment. In the case they had to consider the wedding day had actually been fixed.—London News.

Renting Diamonds In Chicago.

A jeweler told me the other day that he rented out thousands of dollars' worth of diamonds for the charity ball: that he not only did it this year, but that he did so every year, and for all other great occasions; that many rich ladies preferred to rent diamonds for certain times rather than to own them and have the responsibility of them all the time; that others could not afford to buy them, and by renting them could make a fine appearance with not many being the wiser; that his prices for renting varied according to the value of the earrings, bracelets, necklace, tiara, pendant, or whatever the article might be.—Chicago Inter Ocean.

A Poor Excuse.

The icemen now complain that the ice is too thick and that the expense of securing it is unusually heavy. As an excuse for higher prices next summer that will prove too thin.—Boston Traveller

It is stated that since the second plenary council of Baltimore the archdiocese of New York has contributed over $500,000 to Peter's pence.

A pet dog, it is said, recently died in Elkton, Ky., from licking its mistress's cheek. She painted, and the poor dog died of poison.

Of Mackay, the California millionaire it has been wittily said, "He is a man you would like to know if he were not rich."

Coincidence In Death.

It is a singular fact that three noted men have died within a few weeks of each other, whose names are inseparably connected with one of the most exciting episodes in congress, when John Young Brown was censured for having given free rein to his tongue in defining what he conceived to be Butlerism. General Butler, in a characteristic speech, demanded that Brown be punished. Mr. Lamar opposed the motion in quite as vigorous a speech, and Mr. Blaine, who was then the speaker, was called upon to administer the censure, which he did in such a low tone that nobody could hear him, out of consideration for the feelings of the disgraced member.—Boston Herald.

Spontaneous Combustion In the Mails.

Spaulding & Co., the State street jewelers, received yesterday the remains of a package sent out last December. At that time it contained a solid silver filigree comb with celluloid teeth. There had been a miniature conflagration in the box, evidently caused by spontaneous combustion. The edges of the box were charred, there was some burned cotton, a piece of tarnished silver, but no comb. The only explanation offered is that the box must have been placed too near the stove.—Chicago Tribune.

A Noble Indorsement.

Governor and Mrs. McKinley set a noble example of honesty and integrity to the world. The good wife was not an indorser upon the fatal paper, but she indorses her husband's honor and manhood. Such an example in these days is worth millions in money.—Chicago Inter Ocean.

The Beauty Standard.

The standard of female loveliness varies greatly in different countries and with individual tastes. Some prefer the plump and buxom type; some admire the slender and sylph-like, and some the tall and queenly maiden. But among all people of the caucasian race, one point of beauty is always admired—a pure, clear and spotless complexion—whether the female be of the blonde, brunette, or hazel-eyed type. This first great requisite of loveliness can be assured only by a pure state of the blood, active liver, good appetite and digestion, all of which can be secured by the use of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. It is guaranteed to accomplish all that is claimed for it, or money refunded. If you would have a clear, lovely complexion, free from eruptions, moth patches, spots and blemishes, use the "Golden Medical Discovery."

SHERIFF'S SALE.

UNDER AND BY VIRTUE OF A JUDGment, and decree of sale, of the lots of land hereinafter described foreclosing three several mortgages thereon, rendered March 4th, 1893, a copy thereof issued out of the District Court of the State of Nevada, held in and for Washoe County, duly certified by the Clerk of of said Court on the 3d day of April, 1893, and to me delivered as the Sheriff of said county on the 5th day of April, 1893, in an action brought and decided in said Court, wherein S. W. Bowman is plaintiff, and Sadie E. Pothoff, S. D. King, and William Lewis, are defendants, I am, as such Sheriff, commanded to sell said lots of land, and pay in the following order out of the proceeds of such sale:

First—The judgment of said plaintiff, S. W. Bowman, against the defendant, Sadie E. Pothoff, for the sum of $7,115 10, with interest on $6,000 at the rate of ten per cent. per annum from the 3d day of December, 1892, till paid; together with costs of suit ($27 65) and accruing costs.

Second—The judgment of the defendant S. D. King, against the defendant, Sadie E. Pothoff, for $1,864 66, including accrued interest and attorney fees, with interest on $1,200 from the 19th day of February, 1893, till paid, at ten per cent. per annum and accruing costs.

Third—The judgment of the defendant, Wm. Lewis, against the defendant, Sadie E. Pothoff, for the sum of $829, including accrued interest and attorney fees, with interest on $532 at the rate of ten per cent. per annum from February 11, 1893, till paid.

All three of said judgments being for the separate debts of said defendant, Sadie E. Pothoff, as the wife of John A. Pothoff, and to be made out of said mortgaged lands which are her separate property, and any balances remaining unpaid from the sale of said lands to be docketed as judgments against her separate property, or any other property subject to the payment of said judgments so docketed.

Said lots of land described in said decree are situate in the town of Reno county of Washoe, State of Nevada, and are known and described on the plats and maps of said town as lots number (11) eleven, (12) twelve and (13) thirteen, in block Q of said town of Reno; and said three lots are bounded as follows, to-wit: Commencing at the northwest corner of said block Q, at the southeast angle of Commercial Row and Center streets of said town; thence running southerly with the easterly line of Center street 100 feet to an alley; thence easterly along the north line of said alley 75 feet; thence at right angles northerly to the south line of Commercial Row 100 feet; thence westerly with said south line of Commercial Row 75 feet to place of beginning.

Notice is, therefore, hereby given that on Thursday, the 27th day of April, 1893, at 1 o'clock in the afternoon of said day, at the front door of the Court-house of said Washoe county, as Sheriff of said county, in obedience to said decree of foreclosure and sale, will sell at public auction the above described lots of land, or so much thereof as may be necessary to satisfy said three judgments, with interest and costs, to the highest and best bidder for cash in lawful money of the United States.

W. H. CAUGHLIN,
Sheriff.
